

Strategic TVET Management and Institutional Leadership

Sample Course: Managing for Quality in TVET Institutions

This introductory course provides an overview of TVET management from a quality perspective.

The training introduces different areas which contribute to quality in TVET. The practice-oriented approach enables participants to analyse the status quo of processes in their working environment regarding the identified quality areas. This provides a basis to identify and prioritise areas with needs for quality enhancement in their institution.

Content, elements, format and duration can be customised to the respective needs
